Resident complaints received by the councillors - Dog poo on Yeolmbridge Green – agreed clerk would put up more notices. Cigarette butts around the Yeolmbridge Club- clerk contacted one of the committee when complaint had been received- believe connected with skittles teams. On going problem with regard to speeding at Langdon- school bus now stops in different area for safety purposes. Question with regard to yellow lines requested in Yeolmbridge at bridge turn off and in narrow area near Leat Cottages.

Cllr. Dennis had been contacted by the executors of William Forbes Newton will. They were aware of the field owned by William being in the NDP and wished to have further discussion with the PC about this being a partial public space to commemorate William. The councillors agreed a meeting with the executors when they are in the area would be a very good idea.
